

Always be Ready

Have you ever thought to yourself that it would be better to have fun and be bad now, and then be good later? That's what some of the bridesmaids in today's parable were like. They only brought enough oil for their lamps, and didn't bother to bring any extra. But the other bridesmaids had been wise and took along extra flasks to refill their lamps when it got late. When the bridegroom came, those who hadn't brought extra oil were gone, getting more oil, and missed the feast!

Sometimes people say that they have lots of time to change from their evil ways, so they don't repent right away. This parable shows us that it is very foolish to leave important things until later. Nobody knows when they will die, so we should always be ready.

The oil of the bridesmaids is like the grace in our souls. We need to make sure that our soul always has sanctifying grace, which we need to get into Heaven. We lose that grace when we do a serious sin. That is why if we ever commit a serious sin, we should go to confession as soon as we can so that we will always have grace and be ready for when we die.

Answer to front puzzle: 5 had extra oil. Answer to Word-Find: My soul thirsts for Thee.

for you my FLESH PINES and my soul THIRSTS

Thus have I GAZED TOWARD you in the SANCTUARY to see your POWER and your GLORY, for your KINDNESS is a greater GOOD than LIFE;
my lips shall glorify you.

Thus WILL I BLESS you while I LIVE;
lifting up my HANDS, I will CALL upon your NAME.
As with the RICHES of a BANQUET shall my SOUL be and with exultant LIPS my MOUTH shall praise you.

32nd & 33rd Sunday in the Ordinary Time

Blessed Are Those Who Are Ready to Welcome the Lord!

As we proceed in the month of November, we continue remembering our departed brothers and sisters. We commend them all to the Lord's mercy with prayerful love. At the same time, let us not forget that we, too, on a day that is known to the Lord alone, will meet the Lord face to face and account for the way we have loved. That will be the most important moment in our existence because our eternal happiness or unhappiness will depend on it. It is wise to keep this in mind and to prepare for that all-important encounter with the Lord.

In the Eucharistic Sacrifice, let us ask for the grace to be always alert and prepared to welcome Him with the lighted torches of a life spent in faithful service to Him. Then He will invite us to walk with Him into the feast of eternal life.

Stewards of God-given Talents

God is ever so generous with each of His creatures, and especially with us, human beings. He has lavished on us material, physical, intellectual, affective, and spiritual gifts. The secret to be happy with what the Lord has given us is to make the most of His gifts and opportunities.

God's gifts are like seeds laden with potentials. It is for us to discover these potentials and make them bear fruit by using them with creativity, a sense of responsibility, and Christian love. At the end of our life, we will be asked to account for the way we used such gifts. On that day, blessed shall we be if we will be able to show that all those potentials have become a wonderful reality.

Let us offer the Eucharist in thanksgiving for the gifts we have received from the Lord and for the grace to use them in ways that please Him.

CANADIANS FOR A SYNODAL CHURCH

A virtual panel conversation on what emerged from the Synod on Synodality

Join us for an exploratory conversation with:
• Most Reverend Michael Miller, csb, Archbishop of Vancouver
• Sr. Elizabeth Davis, rsm, Sisters of Mercy, Newfoundland
• Ms. Catherine Clifford, Theologian, St. Paul University, Ottawa

The Catholic Church's synodal process has already undergone diocesan, national, and continental stages. It will culminate in two global assemblies at the Vatican. The first will take place Oct. 4-28 and the second in October 2025 to advise the Pope on the topic: "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission." The October 2023 session will be carried out in a synodal style ensuring a continuing fruitful process of discernment to be completed in the second session in October 2024. Proposals on how we can grow as a synodal Church will then be presented to the Holy Father.

This virtual conversation will provide an opportunity to learn from Canadian participants, an archbishop, a religious sister, and a lay woman. They will describe their experiences as voting delegates in the synodal process at the Vatican and offer ways for us all to stay informed and engaged.
