

Divine Mercy

In today's Gospel we hear about the first time that Jesus came to the Apostles after He rose from the dead. He breathed on them and told them that they had the power to forgive sins. Jesus had just given us the Sacrament of Confession- now a priest could take God's place to hear our sins and tell us that we are forgiven.

Today, the second Sunday of Easter, is also the feast of Divine Mercy. Mercy means being treated well even though we don't deserve it. God is so merciful that He wants to forgive ALL our sins, no matter how bad. All we have to do is be sorry and go to Confession.

God's Divine Mercy is so great that even the worst sinner in the world can be saved from Hell if he asks for it. But even our little sins hurt Jesus, so we need to ask God for mercy too. Don't ever imagine that God can't forgive you when you are sorry- remember, Jesus died on the cross so that you would be able to go to Heaven!

Jesus, I Trust in You!

Second & Third Sunday of Easter

Beneficiaries and Channels of God's Merciful Love

Today, the Second Sunday of Easter, we honor the Risen Christ under the title of "King of Divine Mercy." Each of us has surely experienced the infinite mercy of the Lord in so many ways, including the reception of the gift of faith and the forgiveness of our sins. We should manifest our gratitude to the Lord Jesus for his mercy toward us by being merciful toward our neighbor, we will be both the recipients and the channels of God's merciful love. And our lives will become living witnesses to Christ's resurrection and heralds of his love.

Like the converted Thomas, let us approach the merciful Christ in this Eucharist and renew our profession of faith by proclaiming aloud: "My Lord and my God!"

Under the Care of a Loving Shepherd

On this Third Sunday of Easter, our attention is focused on the Risen Christ, who appeared to his disciples, and on his confirming of Simon Peter as the chief shepherd. This appointment is particularly significant because it happened only a few days after Peter had strongly denied being one of Jesus' disciples. Jesus offered Peter the possibility to redeem himself by answering the challenging question: "Do you LOVE me?" The question, repeated three times, elicited a triple profession of love from the humbled disciple. As a result of this, Jesus made him the "deputy chief shepherd" – a role that has been inherited by his successors.

This tells us the basic importance of a sincere love for Jesus, not only for the shepherds of the Church, but also for all the members of his flock. Love is the essence, and nothing can make up for its absence. Today is a good day for all of us to reflect on what really matters to the one who loves, like Jesus, the Loving Shepherd

Pope Francis' Monthly Prayer Intentions - April

Pope’s monthly intention: For families in crisis

Let us pray that broken families might discover the cure for their wounds through forgiveness, rediscovering each other's gifts, even in their differences.
