

Labourers in the Harvest

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus sends out seventy-two disciples to tell the people in the towns that He is coming, and to heal the sick. He tells them that they should pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.

Jesus compares the souls of the people to a harvest. He needs people who will go out into the world and gather the souls for Him, and tells the people that they should pray that God will send out these labourers. Do you know who these people are? They are the priests and other missionaries who work to bring people to Jesus.

Do you think that God might be calling you to be a labourer in the harvest of souls? Pray every day that you will know how you can best serve God. Also pray that God will send many holy priests and missionaries into the world.

The Kingdom of God on Earth

Long before any human being dreamed of creating a “New Society” or a “New Order,” God had already planned to fashion humankind into a community characterized by love, solidarity, justice, and peace. It was Jesus Christ who revealed that “Grand Plan,” called it “the KINGDOM OF GOD on earth,” and laid its foundation in the group of disciples he had chosen. Before he ascended into heaven, he also commissioned them to proclaim and establish the Kingdom in every nation and human heart.

Today we are reminded that the proclamation and the building of the Kingdom is the call and responsibility not just of the leaders and a few enthusiasts, but of all those who believe in Christ. Together, we are called to work for social transformation onwards to building God’s Kingdom on earth. That Kingdom is God’s vision and dream for us, but its realization must begin with all of us here and now.

Do This and You Will Live

We all know that we have the duty to love our neighbor as ourselves. But most of us encounter two big difficulties in the practical application of this all-important commandment. The first difficulty comes from whom to include in the very wide category of “Neighbor.” The second difficulty is to actually love all those who fall into that category.

Today’s Gospel parable of the Good Samaritan tells us that our “neighbor” is every human being, including our enemies. It also teaches us that we must show our love for all our brothers and sisters by being attentive to their needs, even at the cost of personal sacrifice. Only if we fulfill these conditions can we claim to be disciples of Jesus, the Divine Samaritan. In this Eucharist let us pray in a special manner for those who find it difficult to accept and love all as their neighbor.

A word on Reconciliation

Reconciliation is not a sacrament of initiation. It is a sacrament of healing. Reconciliation is celebrated before the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.

Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC)

December 27, 2006, Pastoral Letter to the Faithful of the Diocese of St. Paul – The Restoration of the Order of the Sacraments of Christian Initiation.

When Your Child Attends a Catholic School (Christ the Redeemer Catholic Schools)

Students who are not Catholic or belong to another Christian denomination or Religion still learn about the sacraments in their religious education classes, however, respecting their own Faith Tradition they are to receive their sacraments or Religious rites and rituals in their own Faith Community.

Sacramental Preparation for each sacrament is held at the parish.

Signs of Grace is the current resource used throughout our diocese (fall 2025) for the sacramental preparation for children for Reconciliation, Confirmation and Holy Communion, all with an accompanying program for parents .

Is Your Child Baptized?

No and I'd like to learn more

“Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit, and the door which gives access to the other sacraments.” CCC1213

Sacraments of Initiation
lay the Foundation of every Christian Life

Bishop Gary Franken will be visiting St. Isidore Parish and St. Therese Parish to celebrate Mass with us on July 13, 2025.
Let us keep him in our prayers.

Let us also pray for the needed peace of the world that it may be free from conflict. May God Bring unity to troubled nations and may His glorious peace reign in every heart.
